

It is unfair to take away the traffic and weather stations from XM radio. I do a lot of interstate driving and it would be impossible to try to find the local stations everywhere I go. Also, traffic and weather information are only in segments on public radio and you have to be lucky to catch one. I think it is ridiculous for the NAB to tell me I can not hear a station that I PAY FOR.

-S.Bryson, MD